

AUBURN UNIVERSITY

Dissertation Policy

A dissertation is required of all candidates for the degree of doctor of philosophy. It shall constitute an original contribution to knowledge. The student conducts the research and prepares the dissertation under the direction of the major professor. Only dissertations prepared according to the Electronic Thesis and Dissertation Guide are accepted by the Graduate School. Submission of a dissertation is defined as the time at which the first complete draft of such is submitted to the major professor for review. All dissertations must be published by ProQuest/UMI. The student is required to pay for this service. Auburn University reserves the right to make copies of the dissertation, but the student retains all publication rights. Effective summer 2005, all dissertations must be published electronically through AUETD.
